

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Art Deco Cigarette Holder Made Of Agate And Solid Gold With Enamel, Paris, 1925, Coco Chanel

980 EUR

Signature : Jacques Duriez orfèvre à Paris

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 10,3

Description

Cigarette holder dating from the Art Deco period, circa 1925, consisting of a carved agate or chalcedony shaft and an 18-karat solid gold mouthpiece enamelled in red and set with a black cabochon. Hallmark featuring an eagle's head and the goldsmith Jacques Duriez's mark--consisting of the letters J and D surrounding a painter's palette. This goldsmith worked in Paris starting in 1921 at 39 Rue Sainte-Croix de la Bretonnerie. This beautiful object comes from a Breton estate but was once in Paris; this cigarette holder was accompanied by a wallet from the Desprez house on Rue Saint-Honoré in Paris and a retractable comb, both bearing labels indicating their provenance as Coco Chanel* on Rue Cambon in Paris's 1st arrondissement (these items are being sold separately in another listing);

Dealer

A Brocannique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300

unfortunately, neither the heirs nor I have any additional information to establish a connection with the famous fashion designer. (See last photo.)Gross weight: 15.90 grams.Shipping available via Chronopost or Colissimo for:France: EUR20Europe: EUR40Other countries: EUR60*Gabrielle Chanel, known as "Coco Chanel," was a French fashion designer, milliner, and haute couture designer, born on August 19, 1883, in Saumur and died on January 10, 1971, at the Ritz Hotel in Paris.