

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

19th-century Empire-style Mahogany Dressing Table For Men

750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Empire-style mahogany dressing table for men - 19th century Beautiful Empire-style dressing table for men, crafted from mahogany and mahogany veneer, featuring an elegant design characteristic of the early 19th century. It is topped by a large, swiveling oval mirror, held between two cylindrical posts finished with bronze ornaments. The top features an oval black marble insert with white veining in the center, beautifully inlaid into the mahogany. The lower section opens with a wide drawer, adorned with a beautiful chiseled bronze lock face. The lower section rests at the front on two freestanding columns adorned with bronze rings and capitals, while two straight posts form the structure at the back. A wide, arched-cut crossbar unifies the lower section of the piece. A beautiful men's

Dealer

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Galerie Christophe Elisabeth

Mobile : 06 99 48 80 76

1 domaine de Montrabech

Lézignan-Corbières 11200

dressing table, typical of the elegance of Empire-style furniture, combining mahogany, marble, and bronze ornamentation.Period: 19th century - EmpireMaterials: mahogany, mahogany veneer, bronze, and marbleDimensions:Height:
144 cmWidth: 68 cmDepth: 48 cm