Description

A large tea set consisting of 12 cups and saucers (12), 12 flat cake plates, and 4 serving pieces: a cream pitcher, a sugar bowl, a teapot, and a dessert platter. Limoges, France, Giraud & Brousseau. Decor: central polychrome floral motif (an open rose surrounded by small multicolored wildflowers) and a delicate blue-and-gold geometric frieze along the rims. Beautiful, wide gilding on the handles. Pieces marked with a knight's helmet surmounted by large plumes, inscribed within a rectangular cartouche framed by the words "Limoges" at the top and "France" at the bottom in orange, as well as the words "Limoges France" in green. (Some cups feature only this second inscription.) Distinguishing features: the number of pieces, the condition. Condition: perfect; no fading of the
