Description

Elegant five-light basket chandelier, dating from the 19th century, featuring a metal frame adorned with numerous cut crystal elements. The upper section is richly decorated with floral and foliage motifs, while numerous rows of crystal pendants and beads form a particularly elegant pyramidal composition. The lower section, shaped like a basket, is also entirely adorned with crystal. A refined and highly decorative piece that creates magnificent plays of light thanks to the abundance of crystals. It will complement both classic and more contemporary interiors equally well. Dimensions: height 96 cm × diameter 40 cm
