

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Grand Tour Henri Picard Oil Lamp: Man In A Phrygian Cap With A Goat's Head, After An Antique M

800 EUR

Signature : Henri Picard (actif entre 1831-1864)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 19 cm

Height : 9,3 cm

Description

Candleholder shaped like an oil lamp, modeled after an ancient design Grand Tour The bronze is monogrammed "HP" on the bottom, standing for Henri Picard Decorated with a man wearing a Phrygian cap seated on the head of a goat Good condition Dimensions: Height: 9.3 cm Length: 19 cm Base: 5.5 cm in diameter Henri Picard was a prestigious 19th-century bronze caster and gilder who worked in Paris between 1831 and 1864. Picard was renowned for casting and gilding decorative objects of the highest quality. He worked for the Defreville firm and also collaborated with contemporary designers such as Charles Perrault and Gault. While the artisan received commissions from many important patrons, Picard's most notable achievement was supplying Emperor Napoleon III with decorative

Dealer

Edouard Cattagni Antiquités

Arts décoratifs - Beaux Arts

Tel : 06 33 45 75 89

Proche du métro sentier

Paris 75002

objects, several of which are still on display in the State Apartment of the Louvre Museum in Paris.