Description

A lively landscape scene, circa 1880, depicting a woman accompanied by her daughter--who is holding a balloon--standing near washerwomen at work. On the other side of the riverbank is a mill bustling with people. Oil on mahogany panel (possibly a monogram in the lower right corner; see last photo). Very beautiful period gilded wooden frame, restored. The entire piece is in perfect condition. The panel alone measures 32 x 24 cm
