Description

Large 17-light Maria Teresa crystal chandelier - First half of the 20th century
An imposing and elegant Maria Teresa-style chandelier dating from the first half of the 20th century, characterized by a richly gilded structure and an extraordinary abundance of cut crystal pendants. The chandelier features 17 light points distributed along sinuous arms, embellished with carved crystal cups and numerous hanging decorations of various shapes and sizes. The central section, particularly ornate and intricate, is adorned with crystal garlands, faceted elements, and large, sculpted pendants that lend the chandelier remarkable luminosity and a refined, dramatic effect. The structure, with its harmonious and elaborate lines, draws on the tradition of the grand Maria Theresa chandeliers, particularly prized for their elegance and
