Description

An exceptional and very significant 179-piece cutlery set from Christofle, the Spatours model, presented in its elegant, multi-tiered Art Deco-style wooden case. The Spatours model is one of Christofle's great classics. It is distinguished by a refined and timeless design, elegantly accentuated by a pattern of fillets and curves inspired by classic French designs. This cutlery set is in remarkable condition, nearly like new, with a very fine quality of silver plating and a particularly meticulous presentation. The cutlery appears to have been used very little, if at all for some pieces. The set comprises 179 pieces, including table cutlery as well as numerous complementary and serving pieces, carefully arranged in their case. The high-quality wooden case offers an elegant and structured presentation,
