Description

A beautiful vintage advertising poster for Ideal Milk, created using color lithography in the early 20th century. This poster reflects the golden age of lithographic advertising, with a particularly decorative graphic design and a distinct vintage feel. Printed in Paris by HEROLD, a printer, it has a beautiful decorative presence and serves as an interesting testament to the history of advertising and the food industry. The poster is mounted under Plexiglas, allowing for its preservation and immediate display. Condition: localized foxing on one side, consistent with marks associated with the work's age. Dimensions: 193 × 140 cm.
