

Robin C. Guthrie (1902-1971) - Portrait Of The Young Roy Martin

900 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Description

- Oil on panel. Hand-signed. The model's identity and details about the work are listed on the Royal Society of Portrait Painters (United Kingdom) label affixed to the back. The frame also retains an identification label from the prestigious Macarrón studio in Madrid.- The young Roy Martin, captured by Robin Guthrie's melancholic touch, appears in this portrait as the embodiment of a suspended, anachronistic youth: too old to embody the hopeful freshness of the postwar era, yet too young to sink into the lethargy of old age, despite the old-fashioned stiffness of his little formal outfit. His crossed arms--a barrier of defiant modesty--and his lips pursed in a pout of restrained disapproval betray a precocious maturity, forged in the shadow of a devastated Europe. In the golden twilight of the
