Description

A beautiful decorative plaque in polychrome enamel, signed by ,Élisabeth de La Mauvinière featuring an abstract composition with geometric shapes and intertwined black lines. The design combines solid areas of bright red, orange, white, and pale green, contrasting with a black network that has a crackled, organic appearance. The result is an original graphic composition, characteristic of 20th-century modernist aesthetics. The glossy glazed surface highlights the color contrasts and interplay of textures, giving this work a distinctly decorative character. An interesting piece for enthusiasts of decorative art, artistic enamels, and 20th-century abstract creations. Artist: Elizabeth de la Mounière. Technique: polychrome enamel. Subject: abstract geometric
