

Large Silver-plated Kitchen Set - Saint-médard, Le Chardon, And Pinay Fortias - 48 Pieces

480 EUR

Signature : Saint-Medar

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Silver metal

Description

A beautiful French silver-plated cutlery set in the Louis XV style, consisting of 48 pieces, with rich decoration featuring flowers, foliage, and scrolls. The cutlery features elegant Rocaille-style ornamentation, with finely crafted handles characteristic of the Louis XV style. This set brings together pieces from the Saint-Médard, Le Chardon, and Pinay Fortias houses, featuring harmonious and matching designs. Composition of the cutlery set: 12 large table forks, Le Chardon 6 large spoons, Le Chardon, still in their original individual packaging, never used 6 large spoons, Saint-Médard 12 large table knives, Pinay Fortias 12 small knives, Pinay Fortias. For a total of 48 pieces, enough to set a table for 12 people. The handles feature beautiful floral relief designs, in the style of French Louis XV-style.

Dealer

Jonathan Marchal

Asian art, Antiques and collectibles

Tel : 0033 6 18527595

Paris 75001

silverware. The six Le Chardon spoons are still in their blister packs and have never been used. The other pieces are in good overall condition, showing a few micro-scratches and signs of use, which do not detract from their elegance. The set comes with its storage boxes, as shown in the photographs. A beautiful, decorative cutlery set, ideal for a refined table, bringing together several French silverware manufacturers in a particularly harmonious ensemble.

Characteristics:

Period: 20th century
Style: Louis XV, Rocaille
decoration
Material: Silver-plated metal
Manufacturers: Saint-Médard, Le Chardon, and Pinay Fortias
Number of pieces: 48
Condition: Good overall condition; six spoons have never been used
Presentation: With storage boxes