Description

A walnut sideboard made in Italy in the late 19th century, characterized by a solid structure and refined craftsmanship. The front doors, created by skillfully repurposing the fronts of three drawers, lend a touch of originality and historical charm to the piece. The cantilevered legs provide stability and a balanced aesthetic. Walnut wood, known for its durability and natural beauty, features a warm, inviting patina, enriched by clearly visible grain patterns that enhance its antique charm.

This piece is ideal for spaces that call for sophisticated and authentic furnishings capable of telling stories of the past. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this product requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
