Description

Rare Regulation Uniform of the Water and Forestry Administration / Forest Rangers - Early 20th Century (Jacket + Trousers + Insignia) Description: A very fine, complete uniform set belonging to an officer of the Water and Forestry Administration / the elite Forest Rangers corps, dating from the early 20th century, specifically the 1920s (subsequently, the Forest Rangers corps evolved with the creation of the Forest Sappers corps from 1927 to 1945). This ensemble, made of heavy "finance green" (dark forest green) cloth, attests to the militarized status of this elite administration during periods of general mobilization. The lot includes: The straight-cut tunic: In excellent condition. Straight collar with light green (daffodil-colored) collar tabs adorned with embroidered hunting horns. All
