A striking vintage bracelet dating back to the 1970s, crafted entirely in 18-karat yellow gold, featuring a refined sculptural design typical of jewelry from that era. The openwork structure consists of intertwined elements, embellished with an elegant diagonal pattern. The alternation of satin-finished and polished surfaces creates striking plays of light, highlighting the richness and refinement of the design. The distinctive central interlaced motif lends movement and originality to the composition, emphasizing the quality of the craftsmanship. With its substantial weight of 107.70 grams and generous proportions, this bracelet stands as an elegant testament to 1970s
