Description

A superb pair of Orientalist sculptures in polychrome régulé, depicting a couple in traditional costumes. The man, wearing a turban, is about to offer a flower to his companion, who is adorned with jewelry and holds a jar resting on her thigh. The figures stand on bases decorated with cacti and stylized vegetation. Beautifully modeled, with meticulous drapery and richly nuanced polychromy. A large-scale decorative set in excellent condition, with nearly perfect polychromy. Artist: J. Guillot Period: late 19th - early 20th century Material: polychrome régulé Dimensions: 80 cm high per sculpture Signature: J. Guillot on one of the figures Condition: excellent, polychromy remarkably well-preserved
