

Pair Of Chiseled And Gilded Bronze Andirons

4 800 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Bronze

Description

A pair of Louis XVI-period andirons, in gilded bronze, decorated with a lidded vase adorned with garlands of foliage, gadroons, and topped with a flame. The base rests on four rectangular feet, each featuring a rosette. A mask surrounded by foliage draws the eye to the front of the andestick. The two sides feature a framed floral motif. On the upper register, we find leafy rosettes in the corners, on either side of a fluted frieze and a garland of oak leaves adorned with knots. Louis XVI period Shows signs of use H. 48 cm

Dealer

Galerie Pellat de Villedon

French furnitures of the 17th & 18th centuries

Mobile : 06 07 57 01 20

2 bis rue Carnot

Versailles 78000