Description

India, mid-20th century, a sculpture depicting an elephant, carved from wood and lacquered, adorned with glass beads. The animal stands proudly, clad in a ceremonial robe inlaid with glass beads. Its colour, a burgundy red and gold, brings out the carving's detail. Dimensions: Height 43 x Length 47 x Depth 23 (cm). Good condition, with normal signs of wear that do not affect the piece's appearance. The scale reference in the last photograph is a small model of a lighter from a well-known brand. A certificate of authenticity, in which we guarantee the contents of this listing, will be drawn up and provided to the buyer. We take particular care with our packaging by using the best possible protective materials. The item is dispatched with insurance included. Postage rates: mainland France: 18 euros; European
