Description

Émile Gallé (1846-1904) - Small multilayered glass vase with floral decoration. Small vase signed Gallé, ovoid in shape with a slightly flared neck, made of multilayered glass with a design of flowers, buds, and foliage etched with acid. The flowering branches spread around the body, accompanied by lobed leaves with finely drawn veins. The design combines four colors--orange, yellow, mauve, and brown--in a warm, harmonious palette. The raised motifs stand out against a satin-finish background, whose transparency reveals delicate shades depending on the light. A piece with elegant proportions, captivating for the delicacy of its botanical design and the richness of its colors. "Gallé" cameo signature on the body. In perfect condition. Dimensions: height 9.8 cm; maximum
