Description

A Vintage Jaeger-LeCoultre Ref. 533 Skeleton Desk Clock with Original Box and Papers. An elegant vintage Jaeger-LeCoultre desk clock, reference 533, with a hand-wound mechanical movement displayed within a gilt brass and glass case. The exposed vertical movement forms the centrepiece of the design, framed by a circular gold-toned chapter ring with black Roman numerals and delicate decorative hour markers. The clock is in exceptional condition and appears to have been hardly used. It comes with its original Jaeger-LeCoultre presentation box, which still retains the original protective plastic covering inside, together with a branded leather wallet, quality control card, international guarantee booklet and Cupillard Rieme retailer card. The case combines brushed and polished gilt brass surfaces with clear glass panels, allowing the movement to be viewed from multiple angles. Its clean architectural form makes it a striking piece for a desk, mantel or display cabinet. The base is stamped with reference number 533. The clock is accompanied by its Jaeger-LeCoultre presentation box, branded leather wallet, quality control card, international guarantee booklet and Cupillard Rieme retailer card. Swiss made, circa 1960s-1970s. Dimensions: Approximately 17 cm high × 15 cm wide × 6 cm deep.
