Description

Vintage mechanical perpetual mantel clock manufactured by the Swiss luxury watchmaker Jaeger-LeCoultre. The timepiece features a rectangular 24k gold-plated brass case fitted with 5 clear flat glass panels enclosing the chamber. The clock operates on a 15-jewel Caliber 528 movement powered by a hermetically sealed gas bellows expansion capsule. The central round dial features a white lacquered chapter ring with applied gold-toned Arabic numerals at the 3, 6, 9, and 12 positions, alternating with tapered baton hour markers. A rotating ring-shaped torsion pendulum balance wheel is positioned suspended under the main gear train. The underside of the base features three adjustable circular leveling feet and a central stabilization lock mechanism. The base plate is stamped with the text LeCoultre
