Description

30 x 26 cm. The 3 Hearts. A beautiful, antique religious embroidery on silk with delicate sheen, displayed under glass in its antique, gilded frame. The reverse side, with its taut threads, has remained very authentic. This composition was likely created in a convent by an experienced nun. In the center, three symbolic hearts are embroidered in relief and embellished with gold and silver thread. The central heart is surmounted by the instruments of the Passion, and a closed crown dominates the composition. Surrounding this spiritual motif are generous bouquets of heirloom roses and polychrome flowers executed with remarkable refinement. The gold-embroidered abbreviations "INS," "IPH," and "MRA" refer to the hearts of Jesus, Joseph, and Mary. In excellent condition. While only two
