Description

A superb little smoking pipe (used for cigarillos at period), housed in a beautiful burgundy leather case lined with red silk, bearing a gold stamp in German: "Guaranteed Sea Foam and Amber."Viennese craftsmanship from late 19th century. This small pipe is intended for evening smokers: a beautiful "Eagle Owl" is carved on it, standing guard on a thick branch. It has been smoked a little, accentuating the patina, and, having been well cared for, it is still in excellent condition, without any flaws.A charming little object, full of poetry;leather: 10.5 x 6 x 3.5 cm.
