Description

Description A George III sterling silver basket, London, 1792The body is of a slightly pointed, boat-shaped form, tapering towards the ends in accordance with the principles of the Georgian Neoclassical style. The upper rim features a refined fluted or reeded moulding, enriched along the inner surface with a geometric sequence of small leaves and delicate formal motifs, finely chased and engraved with a burin. The piece is fitted with a tall, shaped, hinged central handle decorated with longitudinal reeding. The body rests on a flared oval foot.Sterling Silver with 5 Hallmarks:The Maker's Mark: UnidentifiedThe Lion Passant: The Mark that indicates Sterling SilverLeopard's Head Crowned: City of LondonThe Date Letter: 1793Duty mark: Head King George IIIDimensions HxLxD: 10,83in
