

Pair Of Bohemian Single-flower Vases, 1890-1900

320 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Description

A superb pair of Bohemian single-flower vases, circa 1890-1900. Made of green and clear glass with faceted sides, adorned with a delicate enameled and gilded design featuring vine branches, grape clusters, and foliage. The octagonal shape and the refinement of the decoration are reminiscent of late 19th-century Bohemian glassware, particularly certain Moser designs. Height: 15.4 cm Weight of one vase: 280 grams In good overall condition, with minimal wear to the gilding; one of the vases has a small chip beneath the base (barely visible).
