Description

Reliquary statue of Saint Vincent de Paul accompanied by two children. Probably 19th century, in the Baroque tradition. Carved wood with a brown patina. The saint, dressed in a buttoned cassock and a short cape, holds a young child in his arms and takes a boy standing beside him by the hand. An oval, glass-covered reliquary capsule, set into his chest and fitted with an ornately decorated metal frame, contains small relic particles and a label bearing the inscription "Vincent de P...". Molded base, carved with two winged cherub heads, small side figures, and plant motifs. Flat reverse side with a hanging ring. Signs of age and wear, shrinkage cracks, and a few small holes.
