18-karat White Gold Ring With A 1.20-carat Burmese Ruby And Diamonds -- Algt Certificate

4 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

This 18-karat white gold ring features a rectangular setting with rounded corners, centered around a natural oval-cut ruby weighing approximately 1.20 carats. Its deep red hue is accentuated by a luminous border and an elegant geometric design. The ruby is accentuated by a setting with golden hues and highlighted by four rectangular rubies. Diamonds adorn the top and bottom of the setting as well as the shoulders of the ring. The 18 brilliant- and princess-cut diamonds total approximately 0.35 carats. The band, wide at the shoulders and tapering toward the back, completes this boldly styled setting. Metal: 18-karat white gold, hallmarked 750. Total weight: 5.9 g. Setting dimensions: 13 × 10 mm. Ring size: 53.5. Center ruby: natural, mixed oval cut, estimated weight of 1.20
