Description

Painting - Genre scene featuring white horses and figures under a red parasol Oil on canvas signed "W. ROLAND" in red in the lower left corner, set in an elegant antique frame of molded and carved wood, accented with gilding and adorned with a cartouche bearing the same name. The composition depicts a picturesque genre scene featuring two figures sheltered under a red parasol, accompanied by two magnificent white horses. The contrast between the whiteness of the horses, the nuanced tones of the landscape, and the vivid pop of color from the parasol lends the work a special charm and a beautiful decorative presence. The figurative treatment of the scene, the attention paid to the figures' poses, and the equine silhouettes evoke a painting in the European tradition, in a naturalistic and anecdotal
