Description

Stunning Persian Qom (Ghoum) Silk-on-Silk Rug - "Bakhtiari" Panel Design (c. 1980) Description

Let yourself be enchanted by the ultimate refinement of Persian craftsmanship with this magnificent Qom (Ghoum) rug, made entirely of silk on silk and dating from the 1980s. Renowned for its exceptionally fine knotting and the incomparable softness of its pile, this piece features a superb compartmentalized design (known as Khesti or Persian garden). Each panel features a variety of floral and botanical motifs, including the Tree of Life and elegant mihrab niches, all framed by a rich, delicately crafted border. Exceptional Materials: Crafted with a warp and weft of 100% silk, offering shimmering, iridescent highlights and rich, intense hues. Color palette: A soft and elegant harmony combining
