

Napoleon III-style Game Table In Blackened Wood, With Brass Inlays And Gilded Bronze Accents, 19

740 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Painted wood

Length : 86cm

Width : 43cm

Height : 76cm

Description

Elegant Napoleon III-era game table, 19th century. Crafted from blackened wood and richly adorned with gilded bronze fittings featuring mascarons, scrollwork, and foliage motifs. Its folding tabletop is embellished with delicate gilded metal inlays, featuring a central floral motif and framing borders. It opens to reveal an antique green felt covering with a small hole, showing signs of wear. A storage compartment is located beneath the top. The table rests on four turned, tapered legs, accented with gilded bronze and finished with spurs (some bronze is missing from the legs). The tabletop is slightly warped. In good overall condition, with signs of wear. Period: second half of the 19th century, circa 1860-1880. Dimensions: Height: 76 cm Length: 86 cm Depth (closed): 43 cm; Tabletop (open):

Dealer

GRF Antiquités

Généraliste

Mobile : 0628589727

1 rue des 2 ponts

Bacouel-sur-Selle 80460

approximately 86 × 86 cm Shipping within Metropolitan France: EUR150. Contact us for more information.