Description

An elegant pair of mid-20th-century French armchairs, designed by Jean-René Caillette and produced by Steiner. These armchairs captivate with their modernist lines and enveloping silhouette, characteristic of French furniture from the 1950s. Their warm-toned wooden frames feature elegantly curved armrests and tapered legs, while their gray tufted fabric upholstery provides comfort and refinement. The combination of wood and gray fabric creates a harmonious contrast, highlighting the balanced proportions and timeless elegance of these chairs. Their aesthetic fits just as well in a high-end contemporary interior as it does in a Haussmann-style apartment, a vintage living room, or a decor that blends collectible pieces with contemporary furniture. A beautiful pair of
