

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Kpm Berlin, Marguerite Friedlaender-wildenhain, Small Tea-extract Pot, "hallesche Form," 1932

2 400 EUR

Signature : Marguerite Friedlaender

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 8,4 (14 cm)

Description

KPM Berlin - Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain, small "Hallesche Form" tea extract jar, circa 1932 KPM Berlin Hallesche Form - rare Art Deco tea extract pot with gold ring decoration and a movable 800 silver handle, designed by Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain and Trude Petri. Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain, Bauhaus and Burg Giebichenstein - original KPM Berlin porcelain tea concentrate pot from the famous Hallesche Form service, circa 1932. KPM Berlin Art Deco porcelain - exceptional miniature teapot with Goldring decoration and a partially gilded silver handle, an important example of German modernist design. Rare Art Deco small tea extract pot from the famous "Hallesche Form" porcelain service by KPM

Dealer

Denes Szy Kunsthandel

Art Nouveau, Art Deco and modern high quality objects

Tel : 0049-211-3239826

Mobile : 0049-171-4041534

Koenigsallee 27-31

Duesseldorf 40212

Berlin. White porcelain adorned with hand-applied gold rings, featuring a movable 800 silver handle that retains traces of its original gilding. Design: Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain, 1929/1930 "Goldringe" decoration: Trude Petri, 1930/1931 Manufactured by: Staatliche Porzellan-Manufaktur Berlin (KPM), Germany, circa 1932. Materials: White porcelain with gold decoration, detachable 800 silver handle with traces of gilding. Markings: KPM's blue scepter, red imperial orb, and the Giebichenstein Castle emblem stamped in relief. Painter's number "84/116" inscribed in black, accompanied by a wavy line below. No other hallmarks. The silver handle bears the "800" hallmark beneath its upper curve. Dimensions: Height without handle 8.4 cm; with handle approximately 14 cm. 1 inch = 2.54 cm. Condition: Very good condition. Partial wear of the original gilding on the silver handle. Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain (1896-1985), a ceramicist trained at the Bauhaus and head of the ceramics studio at Burg Giebichenstein in Halle, created the "Hallesche Form" tableware set, considered one of the major achievements of German modernist porcelain. Trude Petri's "Goldringe" design combines the functional simplicity inherited from the Bauhaus with the geometric elegance of Art Deco. Bibliography: Die Schaulade, no. 7, 1931, p. 216 (illustration); Tim D. Gronert, Das Porzellan der KPM Berlin 1918-1988, Vol. I, 2020, p. 310. Comparable works: GRASSI Museum für Angewandte Kunst, Leipzig; The Wolfsonian-Florida International University. KPM Berlin Hallesche Form--rare small Art Deco tea extract pot in porcelain, with "Goldringe" decoration and a movable handle in 800 silver, designed by Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain and Trude Petri. Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain, Bauhaus, and Burg Giebichenstein - small KPM Berlin porcelain tea concentrate pot, "Hallesche Form" model, circa 1932. KPM Berlin, German

Art Deco porcelain - rare small teapot with a gold-ring decoration and a partially gilded silver handle, representative of German modernist design. Keywords: KPM Berlin, Hallesche Form, Marguerite Friedlaender-Wildenhain, Trude Petri, Bauhaus porcelain, Burg Giebichenstein, Goldringe, German Art Deco, small tea extract pot, miniature teapot, 800 silver handle, German porcelain, modernist design, KPM Berlin.