PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Portrait Of A Man - Oil On Oak Panel, Signed Omer Dierickx (1862-1939)

450 EUR

Signature : Omer DIERICKX (1862-1939)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting on wood

Width : 37 cm

Height : 45 cm

Description

An intimate bust portrait depicting an elderly, bearded man wearing a fur cap, signed "Dierickx." Famous Belgian academic painter, Omer Dierickx (1862-1939), co-founder of the prestigious Brussels circle " Pour l'Art", is particularly known for his monumental frescoes (Brussels City Hall, Saint-Gilles, Tervuren Museum). This painting reflects his mastery of private studio work, presenting a sublime exercise in chiaroscuro, directly inspired by the Old Masters of the Dutch Golden Age (in the style of Rembrandt or Jan Lievens). Work details: Artist: Omer Dierickx (1862-1939) - Belgian School.Technique: Oil on solid oak panel (a high-quality and very stable studio support).Signature: Hand-signed "Dierickx" in cursive within the fresh paint layer, integrated

Dealer

Rom'Antiques

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : +32479558334

Bâty de Branchon 17

Eghezée 5310

beneath the original varnish.Overall dimensions (including frame): 37 cm x 45 cm (an ideal size to fit easily into any interior).Provenance: Superb material history. The painting was once in Switzerland, as evidenced by the original label from the prestigious art gallery and frame shop Fred Chédel in Geneva (located on Rue de la Synagogue in the 20th century).Condition:The work is in excellent condition (a few minor imperfections inherent to its age). The oak panel is sound and sturdy (no wormholes or warping). The paint layer has a magnificent period patina. Sold in its molded wooden frame with a double patina of gold and brown.