Description

A very beautiful oil on paper mounted on canvas, measuring 26.5 cm x 38 cm, plus a period frame (poorly restored) 38 cm x 50 cm signed lower left Paul Guigou Triel 1865. Along with Monticelli, Paul Guigou is one of Provence's greatest painters. Considered a precursor to Impressionism, his works are featured in the world's leading museums, including, of course, the Musée d'Orsay in Paris. Having died at age 37, his paintings are rare and highly sought after. This painting depicts washerwomen hard at work. He was hired as an art teacher for the children of Baroness Nathaniel de Rothschild, a friend of Ziem's. He divided his short life between Paris and Provence; he even had a studio in Montmartre where he taught painting. Struck by congestion, he died at the end of 1871. Free shipping worldwide.
