Description

Neoclassical Louis XVI-style cabinet made of rechap-painted wood, decorated with floral motifs and bouquets in grisaille on a light background--a pale yellow with shades of monochromatic blue--with blue trim highlighting the doors. Decorated with garlands, arabesques, scrollwork, and acanthus leaves. Upper section: A large floral basket carried by cherubs. Lower section: An oval medallion on a dark blue background depicting a scene of cherubs. In the center: a scene of allegorical figures seated back-to-back, framed by floral scrolls. This cabinet opens with two mirrored hinged doors; the interior features three shelves on one side and a clothing rack on the other. Topped by a molded cornice with a "gendarme's cap" design. Rounded, molded front
