Description

Louis XV-Style Oak Wardrobe from Eastern France - 18th Century A very beautiful and imposing wardrobe from eastern France, in the Louis XV style, made of solid oak, dating from the 18th century. It opens with two large doors featuring three molded and scalloped panels, displaying exquisite carving. The upper transom is adorned with delicate carved floral motifs. The central false door frame features an elegant flowering branch running its entire height. The lower rail, with its graceful curves, is decorated with scrollwork and foliage, featuring a carved medallion at its center. It rests on curved legs and features a beautiful molded cornice, long exposed tenons, and beautifully crafted lock plates. The interior, spacious and functional, is fitted with several shelves, a hanging rail, and a small
