1 711 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

Antique mechanical pocket watch executed in the half hunter style, dating to the early 20th century.

The outer hinged front cover features a central circular viewing glass displaying Roman numeral indices. The white enamel dial exhibits black Roman hour markers, an outer minutes track, a subsidiary seconds dial at 6 o'clock, and blued steel hands. The mechanical movements are configured with a Swiss lever mechanism, a cut bimetallic balance wheel, and steel winding gears. The interior inner case back features stamped English hallmarks including a crown, the numeric characters 9 and 375 indicating solid 9-carat gold, a Birmingham date letter U, and the maker initials ALD for the Dennison Watch Case Company inside a rectangle. The solid metal watch measures 51 mm in case diameter
