Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description
