Description

Decorative object - collector's item Stainless steel - leather. The Manhattan collection is inspired by the 1920s. This elegant piece features a metal basin (polished nickel or stainless steel finish), supported by a webbing structure and a brown leather handle inspired by the equestrian world. Historical inspiration (1930s-1970s): The design of this piece draws directly from the equestrian-inspired champagne buckets popularized by major luxury houses such as Hermès and designer Jacques Adnet in the 20th century. Shows signs of wear consistent with its age and use.Dimensions: Ø 23 cm - 26 x 23.5 cm H
