Description

Matching set of 6 vintage openwork tea glass holders, historically identified as podstakanniks. The interior upper rim of each holder features a stamped hallmark consisting of a star emblem enclosing a hammer and sickle symbol alongside the numeric purity mark 875. The design features a tall, angular multi-faceted handle attached to a circular base. The body displays openwork cutouts forming symmetrical floral and foliate scrollwork pattern details. The central front profile incorporates a shield-shaped cartouche framed by engraved leaf patterns. The internal cylinder provides space for a standard glass insert. The total combined weight for all 6 items is approximately 555 grams. The external dimensions of each holder measure 10cm in height by 7cm in width including the handle.
