Description

An egg-shaped silver sugar bowl resting on elegant leaf-shaped feet, featuring a movable handle decorated with enamel ornaments. The surface of the body is covered with a complex cloisonné enamel composition featuring a polychrome floral design arranged in arched vertical panels rising rhythmically from the base toward the rim. The color palette includes rich shades of cobalt, azure, turquoise, white, and red on a gold background featuring filigree and granulation. The upper rim is highlighted by a frieze of light blue enamel dots, accentuating the purity of the profile. The interior is gilded, creating a refined contrast with the multicolored enamel and enhancing the object's decorative effect. The composition and virtuosity of execution attest to the high level of the Moscow
