characteristic of the early 20th century Several typical features help date it: -The pagoda shape: The tapered, curved upper dome draws inspiration from the taste for exoticism and Orientalism that was very much in vogue in the 19th century. -The ironwork: -The wrought-iron arabesque and scroll motifs surrounding the door and adorning the base are emblematic of the decorative art of the 1880s through the mid-20th century. The structure: These large, ceremonial aviaries were designed as true pieces of decorative furniture to adorn winter gardens, verandas, or the grand salons of bourgeois homes of the era.
