Description

A rare and beautiful set of 8 figures from Indian Buddhism, brought together in a single, exquisite gilded compartmentalized frame. This antique "curiosity" from India is remarkable as a collection of gods, goddesses, and demons from this religion as practiced in India during the 18th century. The striking, fresh, and vivid colors on these delicate and detailed depictions create a lovely decorative panel with rich tones. In very good condition and not faded by time, this magnificent series, presented as a set, is a masterpiece in terms of its presence and symbolism... A guaranteed change of scenery for a spiritual journey to the East
