Description

Pair of Empire-period candlesticks, chiseled with guilloché motifs; H 23.5 cmA superb and elegant pair of Empire-period candlesticks made of richly chiseled brass. These candlesticks are distinguished by the delicacy of their geometric decorations, created using a guilloché lathe: alternating beaded friezes, textured lozenges, fluting, and herringbone patterns on the shaft and the original rod-and-threaded-nut assembly threaded rod and nut beneath the circular base. Slim silhouette and beautifully balanced forms.
