Description

La Roche Laffitte (born 1943) - The Constellations - Two Watercolours on Silk Two works by La Roche Laffitte, depicting constellations and mythological figures of the night sky. The artist reinterprets the imagery of historical celestial charts, creating a fantastical and colourful world populated by real and imaginary animals, mythological characters and allegorical figures. Among the recognisable figures are the Unicorn (Monoceros), Orion, the Great Dog (Canis Major), the Little Dog (Canis Minor), the Hare (Lepus) and the Hydra, accompanied by numerous small golden stars. The compositions are distinguished by delicate colour gradations, precise draughtsmanship and colourful geometric borders, deliberately crossed by certain figures. Several versions of the Unicorn
