Description

Baccarat - Set of six colored crystal Römer glasses, Piccadilly model. An elegant set of six Römer-style wine glasses from Baccarat, Piccadilly model, made of double-layered, colored, and cut crystal. The flared glasses feature a luminous palette blending pink, purple, cobalt blue, turquoise green, and shades of yellow-green. Their design combines long, lance-shaped cuts with a double frieze of diamond points at the base of the bowls. The cut reveals the crystal's transparency beneath the color and creates a beautiful play of light. Each glass rests on a tall, faceted stem of clear crystal, adorned with a bow, which extends into a circular base. The slender silhouettes and harmonious colors come together to create a refined ensemble for a reception table. "Baccarat France" stamp
