

Tiffany & Co. Fish-shaped Sterling Silver Creamer. United States, Mid-20th Century.

2 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 5

Width : 13.5

Height : 6.6

Description

A rare sterling silver cream pitcher crafted by the prestigious Tiffany & Co., designed in the shape of a fish. The sculptural body is finely engraved with details depicting the scales, fins, and head, while the elegant handle takes the shape of the fish's tail, creating a composition that is both harmonious and perfectly functional. Created between 1947 and 1965, this piece is a remarkable example of postwar American silversmithing. It perfectly illustrates the distinctive aesthetic of Tiffany & Co. during this period, when organic forms inspired by nature were interpreted through the refined language of mid-20th-century modernism. Thus, utilitarian objects became true works of decorative art, combining sculptural elegance with technical perfection. The base bears the manufacturer's

Dealer

Maison Antiquon

Fine Art & Antiques

Mobile : +33 6 30 17 47 17

Rue de France 48

Nice 06000

mark "TIFFANY & CO. MAKERS STERLING," certifying that it is made of sterling silver (925/1000), as well as the model number 711. It should be noted that this number corresponds to the Tiffany & Co. catalog reference and does not indicate a date of manufacture. Thanks to the exceptional quality of its craftsmanship, the balance of its proportions, and the instantly recognizable aesthetic of one of the world's most famous luxury houses, this creamer is a piece highly sought after by collectors of American silverware, Tiffany & Co. enthusiasts, and connoisseurs of 20th-century decorative arts. Hallmarks: Manufacturer's mark: "TIFFANY & CO. MAKERS STERLING." Model number: 711. Dimensions: Height 6.5 cm. Width 13.3 cm. Depth 5 cm. Weight: 156.7 g. Condition: Very good condition. Provenance: European private collection. ID-ANTQ-11838