Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

An elegant 18ct gold diamond solitaire pendant necklace, featuring a single brilliant-cut diamond in a classic rubover setting. The diamond is assessed at approximately 0.75 carat, with an estimated VS clarity and I/J colour range. It is securely rubover set in 18ct white gold, creating a clean, understated setting that allows the diamond to remain the principal focus. The pendant is fitted to a smooth and flexible 18ct yellow gold snake-link chain, measuring approximately 40cm / 15.75 inches in length. The necklace is completed with a secure clasp and safety catch mechanism. The necklace has a total gross weight of approximately 7.8 grams. There are no full British hallmarks present; however, the piece is stamped "750", indicating 18ct gold purity. Details: * Metal: 18ct yellow and white
