Description

A beautiful Brutalist and Constructivist lamp made of chamotte terracotta from the 1960s and 1970s. Probably a one-of-a-kind piece by an unidentified artist, inspired by Cubist forms from the 1930s. Original piece in excellent condition with a completely refurbished electrical system that will add a unique decorative touch to both classic and modern interiors. It casts a beautiful, soft, mineral-like light, enhanced by the lamp's subtle reflections.
