Description

Dimensions: 13.5 cm in diameter, weight: 600 g. A beautiful, large chandelier globe, made of blown glass or crystal, with an 8-pointed star-shaped base, the body encircled by two friezes of cut ovals, with a button-shaped top allowing for a brass wire attachment; the original glass ring has, as is often the case, broken on these large 19th-century pieces. This is the only flaw in this beautiful ball, which is crystal clear; it was likely intended for a Louis Philippe-style chandelier with pendants or plates measuring 1 m by 1.50 m...Instant purchase: payable by credit card or PayPal. eclectic -- We are not experts, but have been in the business for over 50 years.
